> Myth 1a - "The attendance at "churches"/501c3s is gradually decreasing."

Facts & answers - The home-church movement has been on the increase since the 1980s. Back then such outspoken men as Larry Burkett and others were lamenting that people were abandoning "churches". But, the facts showed then and show now that they were not abandoning churches at all, but going merely going back to God's model for the gathering of believers: home churches. In 2003, George Barna's poll showed that the home-church movement across the US had grown so much that "home-gatherings" were listed as the 2nd largest denomination in the country. Now, 14 years later, we are pretty sure that home-churches are the largest denomination, since 501c3s are getting more and more greedy and pushing more and more lies. You can prove this for yourself by noting how many more people today are strongly encouraging people to home-school their children instead of sending them to the Rockefeller-directed pagan education facilities, where they are force-fed perverse "teachings", witchcraft, and all types of lying false religions - including evolution. So, what do we do - do it man's rebellious way or God's? The honest followers of Christ are voting with their feet - God's way.

"8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. 9 As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed. 10 For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ." (Galatians 1:8-10)

More facts to think about - that you can see too.

Here is a reality check on who is leaving so-called churches, why there is such unrest among mature believers against "church" leaders, and where we have gone after we left the state-approved so-called "churches". While there are several useful thoughts in each article, they are largely written by people within the corrupt establishment who haven't quite decided to stop being complicit with the evil or else are trying to still polish it pretty in hopes of their agendas not completely collapsing on them with their own guilt of having tried to destroy true faith in Jesus. In other words, these articles should be written by followers of Christ, but most of us are just involved in actually doing ministry wherever we are, and we don't tend to use mass-outreach formats to communicate. But these are people within their own establishment admitting things that all of us already have known and keep trying to figure out how to communicate to the people who are worldly and immature in the church who are trying to follow Christ and these guys. And we absolutely do not recommend registering your home churches or trying to establish tracking systems so that the government can regulate and tell you how and what you will preach through your church networks.

> Myth 1b - "There are fewer seminary students proving less interest than decades ago."

Facts & answers - As we just saw above in the discussion and links, the trend in the US is far from abandoning God and "churches", but abandoning the corrupt corporations that call themselves "churches". And the same sentiment goes with the Rockefeller-limited seminaries (or "semitaries" as we call them), because by and large, across the US, they teach very little of God's Word and a whole lot about man's words about God's Word. It's the same problem with modern demonic psychology - they excuse sin and call it "disorders" and call caring pleas for repentance and genuine salvation "judging". Yep, that's demonic - switch good for evil, and evil for good. But God says to them: "Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! 21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!" (Isaiah 5:20-21) The interest in studying the Bible is shown by the quietly growing numbers in home Bible studies, homeschooling, and sharing the gospel on the streets and at work - despite the pressure from the 501c3 "churches" not to do those. God is working - but leaders lie to keep their disciples and favor with ungodly men. And that's not even discussing the depths of evil with the so-called "accreditation" organizations/corporations run by the Rockefellers and the UN and the Eli Lilly foundation.

---- Here are some real explanations on why there is less American interest in seminary.

> Myth 1c - "There is less unity among the believers in the US."

Facts & answers - That's another lie, and a popular one. This is easily proven. If there is so much intention for people to keep the divisions and disunity among going among patrons of each denomination, then why are so many people moving away from "denominations" to non-denominational churches. No, the people are starting to wake up (albeit slowly) to the fact that the NWO leaders us religion to control people - including the gaggle of so-called "Christian leaders" in the country that act more like the "evangelical machine" that some are rightly calling it. No, it's not about "denomination" - it's about "domination" and control to keep the abusers who run the system and have done many crimes and criminal misdeeds that they are ready to be arrested and prosecuted. The church is not going down. Jesus is not a liar, but those who pretend that America is "post-Christian" (like Albert Mohler) are liars. Those who run American "Christianity" are the dogs and liars and scoundrels that Jesus and Paul and John and Peter warned about - turning Jesus' gathering of believers into a den of thieves (Matthew 21:13). Remember, Jesus said: "18 And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it." (Matthew 16:18) And remember, God through Paul said this: "And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. 26 Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men. 27 For I have not shunned to declare to you the whole counsel of God. 28 Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood. 29 For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. 30 Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves. 31 Therefore watch, and remember that for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears." (Acts 20:25-31)

In conclusion on this point, there is less blind obedience to the self-professed leaders of "American Christianity" and a whole lot more checking them and their lies. That's what God's Word tells us to do. That is not less unity - that is more accountability. It's flat out lies to call it "disunity" for those who love God's Word to hold enemies of the cross of Christ and the Bible accountable.

--- Here is a reality check on the damage that has been done to the churches in America, which is why we are leaving most of them behind. These articles also do some explaining on how corrupt and unsaved and caustic the leaders are of "churches" even to the point of many pastors and music leaders being completely unsaved or worse – being skilled scoffers in our midst pretending to lead us around.

> Myth 1d - "Young people are giving less to the many Christian ministries in the US."

Facts & answers - Yes, giving is down... sort of. You see, many of us fell for the often repeated lies by those who are not honorable but parade themselves around as leaders of some supposed "ministry". Yes, we all have caught many liars and scammers and are not blindly giving to those who steal money but do not do the work Jesus commanded them to. Yep, we are all giving less to those liars. That doesn't mean we don't care - it means we are tired of giving money to wolves.

--- Why give to corrupt and fake charities who have a big name? That's what many in the US have been starting to catch onto - that goes for "religious" charities too.

* <http://listverse.com/2013/10/07/10-horrible-facts-about-charities> (even atheists can figure this out, though the Bible clearly reminds followers of Christ of right and wrong, things that take the atheist longer to figure out...)

Here's one prime example.

Money on Mute: The American Red Cross

Even the best nonprofits can fail the public by not being up-front about how they've spent donors' money. When a 7.0-magnitude earthquake struck Haiti in 2010, killing some 100,000 people and leaving more than a million homeless, Americans were quick to open their wallets, many reaching for their favorite charity, the American Red Cross, in the same way they'd reach for Coca-Cola when they wanted a soda. After the acute phase of the disaster, other groups whose coffers were full began turning away money, but the Red Cross continued fund-raising aggressively, ultimately pulling in $488 million worth of donations, more than any other organization. A year after the disaster, as part of its Haiti relief, the charity announced that it expected to spend $100 million on "construction of permanent homes and community development projects."

Four years later, NPR and ProPublica made this stunning accusation: Despite having spent nearly half a billion dollars, the American Red Cross had built a grand total of six new homes in Haiti. The Red Cross has since explained that those six homes were a modest pilot project and that when faced with the on-the-ground realities—a cholera outbreak, the nation's confounding land-title system, corruption, security issues—the group had changed its plans. But by now, donors and the public were demanding details about exactly what had gone on in Haiti—and the American Red Cross was not satisfying the clamor..."

* <https://www.rd.com/culture/how-charities-spend-money>

> As you can see, it's not about a lack of caring - it's about a lack of trust with the "charities" that promote themselves and yet don't deliver on their promises. God simply calls it lying.

"16 These six things the Lord hates, Yes, seven are an abomination to Him: 17 A proud look, A lying tongue, Hands that shed innocent blood, 18 A heart that devises wicked plans, Feet that are swift in running to evil, 19 A false witness who speaks lies, And one who sows discord [sin temptations] among brethren." (Proverbs 6:16-19)

"16 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor." (Exodus 20:16)

> Myth 1e - "There is less urgency for international missions because of reduced interest."

Facts & answers - Not even close. This is another often repeated lie of the leaders of the "evangelical machine". The interest in international missions is up - as many of us know. But, the interest to bypass the greedy good ole boys who ran the "missions" part of the "evangelical corporation" is certainly down. And that's a good thing. Honest followers of Christ are going back to letting God lead them, instead of a corrupt and greedy man running some so-called "charity". We are all giving to honest means and/or helping people directly, instead of giving to corporate machines called "charities". And, on top of that, the Vatican, Rothschilds, and Rockefellers and the NWO machine have been making it much harder to go on missions outside the country to share the words of Jesus and His gospel. The so-called "United Bible Society" has also been corrupting modern translations and making the work of spreading the love and truth of Jesus very, very hard. That is not a lack of interest. That is a move of satan to block the gospel, while blaming it on the honest followers of Christ for not caring. They are proving by their quiet actions that they believe and follow Jesus' command:

"18 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in Heaven and on earth. 19 Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen." (Matthew 28:18-20)

> Myth 1f - "There is growing frustration with Christians here in the US and worldwide."

Facts & answers - Well.. that's not new. Jesus foretold that about 2000 years ago.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

11 Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake. 12 Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you." (Matthew 5:10-12) That persecution includes the whole range of things - from lying and slandering honest followers of Christ, to trying to get them fired for not being okay with gross sin and wickedness, to trying to murder them or get them murdered to silence their witness for Christ. And yes, satan will always try to do that - up until he's locked up. Jesus explained this clearly: "18 If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you.19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. 20 Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also. 21 But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me." (John 15:18-21) And Jesus says of the false converts: "21 Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'" (Matthew 7:21-23) So, persecution is up? No. It may be more prevalent, to some extent, because people who were false converts are now getting honestly saved... but no, satan and the NWO team will always persecuted honest followers of Christ - no surprise there. Don't let the devil discourage you from serving the Lord with that lie.

--- Confusions about missions that have caused confusion in America about what missions or activities to support or participate in. Especially the social gospel overtook missions to the point where doing helpful things is the goal of most organizations and preaching the gospel is considered abusive, prideful, and wrong.

> Myth 1g - "Great "godly leaders" are dying... and Christianity is dying with them."

Facts & answers - No, and no. Just read the writings of many of these "greats" and you will quickly see that when compared to the Word of God... the popular men's words by and large contradict God's Word, while pretending to agree with it. You see, if they got big enough in popularity to make money by selling their words about God's Word, then guess what they are serving - money and the world. It's as plain and simple as that. Jesus said it this way: "24 No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon." (Matthew 6:24) Now, notice what God says here - no one can serve God and possessions. God will allow Satan to test that person to prove what he or she will serve, until by the end of their life, it will be plain what they chose. And that word "mammon" - it's most often interpreted and/or mis-translated as "money", but it is so much more. You see, a Biblical definition filling in 1st John 2:15-17 (and other similar passages) shows that this word would be more properly translated: "earth's empty burnable trinkets, and sinful pleasures". And God says you can't serve Him and those things. You and I are making that choice every single day. What is the sum of your choices? Good question? Let's look at one bigger question - what is the sum of the choices of your favorite pastor or Bible teacher? What does their life show they are serving: God or their favorite earth trinkets and sinful pleasures? The fruit shows the root. As Jesus also explained: "33 Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. 34 Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. 36 But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. 37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned." (Matthew 12:33-37)

--- Do some investigation into the "great" leaders of "Christianity" in America and you tend to discover that they didn't even have faith in Jesus in the first place. They are very often clever Satanists who have infiltrated and are trying to rewrite our faith to attempt to discredit all of us, so they can switch to one-world religious power.

> Myth 1h - "Christians are just not that interested in social issues anymore."

> Myth 1g - "Christians are not doing enough to stop the culture from drifting into more sin."

Facts & answers - Again, this is the supposed "conservative" leaders talking points on all of the fake-stream press stations and shows... but it's lies. How can we be so bold to say that? It's simple. Do you have garage sales in your area? Do people stop and talk to one another? Well there you go - community still works and some still try to grow it wherever they go. Another note is how people are trying to help the homeless, but the mean city leaders are driving those homeless out of the cities. Yes, it's true that many of us are tired of giving to the professional homeless (ahem dare we say lazy?), and the guys and ladies who clearly will only spend it on sexual immorality, porn, alcohol, cigarettes, drugs, and other destructive addictions. But when someone truly needs help - people are stopping and helping them. That is true in the little cities, but also happening more and more in the bigger cities, and is also shown by how people go slow around broken down vehicles and accidents just to make sure that person is okay. Is God working in America? YES! But will the evangelical machine leaders admit that? No. Why? Because they have an agenda to move us from the words and teachings of God in His Word to any step closer to the New World Order and satan's society. Yes, they all have their own slightly different reasons for working with satan's system, but it all goes back to the same things: love of money, fame with wicked men, and want for earth's trinkets and sinful pleasures, as is shown so clearly in Matthew 4 and 1st John 2:15-17.

The second part of the lie here is mean, but also wrong. Think through how many honest followers of Christ that you know of that are gently speaking up about things they see are wrong, and then give up and just get quiet when it falls on "deaf ears" - be that government leaders or religious ones. They do care, but the liars behind pulpits running their 501c3s as corporations are not listening to honest followers of Christ, so they are getting quiet, leaving, and doing whatever they can alone or with other like-minded believers. We cannot make anyone repent, but we can preach and teach the Word of God, and many of us are doing that - but don't expect the world or false "Christians" or false "Christian leaders" to notice, until their lies are caught or exposed. The "evangelical machine" is marching a direction opposite of the honest followers of Christ, while blaming us for the problem. Nope - those hateful words from them are just lies that fall on the floor, empty. Christians are engaging with the culture - just not the way the "evangelical machine" leadership is trying to command us to do, ways that would breed sin and further the problems. God says there is only one way to resist the sins of the culture - the preaching of the Word of God and the gospel of Jesus Christ, things that are foolishness to so-called "pastors" who do not believe or follow Jesus.

"... 8 Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. 9 And he said to Him, 'All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me.' 10 Then Jesus said to him, 'Away with you, Satan! For it is written, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve."' 11 Then the devil left Him, and behold, angels came and ministered to Him." (Matthew 4:8-11)

"15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world—the wants of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever." (1st John 2:15-17)

"18 For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God." (1st Corinthians 1:18)

"14 But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." (1st Corinthians 2:14)

"I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom: 2 Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; 4 and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. 5 But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry." (2nd Timothy 4:1-5)
