Hello brothers and sisters in Christ, thank you to all who prayed for Orlando while this demonic invasion happened here. Turns out this event was more than a pep-rally, it was a demonic commissioning. You ask, how? Good question. What we witnessed first-hand was all of the top demonic leaders on the lying “charismatic” side joining hands and forces to try to cover each other’s scandals, get their audiences in trances, and to think that their leaders sending them out to do the next projects was God talking to them.

Of these leaders, we note some long –time leaders of this fake “spirit-led” event. YWAM’s leader was there with his wife – Loren Cunningham and Darlene Cunningham (both false prophets at least, but we can get to that in a minute). And one of Loren’s close co-workers, Andy Bird, was also there. Also Mike Bickle – very influential false teacher and false prophet was there. So was Lou Engle (founder of the lying wonders “The Call”) – who is among the older lying charismatic leaders and boasts how long he has been leading “prayer” teams and efforts for “revival” in America for 20 years... only what he “prays” for isn’t Biblical. Of course Bill Johnson was there, because he’s always one of those high-level mason/Jesuit connection guys who can pull the strings and arrange events, he’s most often a high-level shadow leader of the false prophets and lying wonders of the modern charismatic movement, and involved in a lot of one-world government and one-world religion movements. Heidi Baker, also a long-time lying wonders, prayer and false prophetess was there. And, some will recognize that the very demon-possessed Todd White was there – one of the most clever at his words, pretending to preach against sin more than the rest of them. Of course, Daniel Kolenda was there, disciple and right-hand man of the African so-called “evangelist” Reinhard Bonnke (Mr. Bonnke was not here). There were others too, as you can see. But probably the most surprising one on the list, for some, was a man named Francis Chan. Yeah, the supposed “reformed” leader. He’s not. I already knew a lot about him because of his lukewarm teaching, and refusing to teach people to actually kick sin out of their life and homes, but at this event, we caught him doing worse than that. You see, Mr. Chan was one of the slickest and best Bible teachers at this event, which you would expect. But, there were things that he said that also showed how evil he is. For instance, after he was done speaking and about to leave, he joined in “praying” on stage with other very “charismatic” lying leaders and was praying “prophetically” and dramatically like them – it was a big show, and he was glad to be a part of it. He seemed to leave about 4PM or so. There were a lot of quotes on people to refer to, but this is just the short notes. One other thing we should mention, before we talk about the top leaders of this event/movement, was that 2 people showed up who were not on the list – Benny Hinn, and Rodney Howard Brown – both are very sick, very selfish, very prideful, and very demonic. It was quite interesting to see Benny Hinn boss people around on stage and getting them noticeably angry at him. And after someone else did “healings”, he stepped on stage and did more “healings” and then was claiming that those were all “his healings”. Despite that, the whole team worked pretty well to get an emotional movement going across the stadium, meaning everyone in a trance. Both Mr. Hinn and Mr. Brown were using this pep-rally to boost their image. All of the leaders there were very deceptive and knew how to copy conservative Bible teaching wording, but then contradicted themselves many other times in their speeches and “prayers”. We also saw Rodney Howard Brown do the devil’s sign several times.

Another small note is that “The Send” leaders were boasting that 80,000 had signed up to come to this event... whatever that number may be, the stadium itself could only hold 65,000, and it was only half to two-thirds full throughout the day, meaning that’s between 30,000 to maybe 45,000. They also say that they raised $16,000,000 before the event started... who knows how much of that is true, or how it will be used, and whose pockets will get a good chunk of that, because no media was allowed into this event, and the audience was not allowed to bring video cameras. Talk about secretive to hide some lying schemes. It seems we did find a way to play the whole event, so we should be able to say more in the longer report.

The Jesuits. As usual, there were Jesuits at this event and determining how it should go, and how to emotionally manipulate their disciples to go out doing the will of Rome, pretending it was the will of God. Those Jesuit leaders (at least the two that we could catch) were a man Claudio Freidzon, a “pastor” of a 20,000 member mega-“church” in Buenos Aires, Argentina. All of the big leaders in that city work together, and that is also the home of the current Jesuit “pope”. The other Jesuits (or Jesuit-agents at very least) were the husband and wife team Loren and Darlene Cunningham. Some will be shocked for us to call Loren a Jesuit, but there’s a lot of proof in his connections and even his own words at this event. Loren Cunningham got trained by the same team that trained Billy Graham to be the Jesuit crusader conquering for Rome with a different “gospel”. Loren’s training and founding of YWAM (in 1960) was in Lausanne, Switzerland, the same location where the ecumenical, one-world religion control-group called the “Lausanne Council”, now called the “Lausanne Movement” is headquartered. It is one of Rome’s top hubs in Europe. But worse than that, is what Loren said at this event... he seemed to be quite proud of himself when talking, which is probably why he talked so much. Here are some quotes.

First Darlene emphasized several times that we are all “family” and was working to downplay Loren’s working directly with the “pope” and Vatican leaders and one-world religion. She tried really hard to get these young people and their parents to just overlook the one-world religious aspects that Loren is actively working on.

Loren says he is about to be 85 years old – same as Caleb when he went to claim mountain territories in the promised land of Israel. And so he decided to describe a few of the metaphorical “mountains” that he wants to claim in his older years. The first is EndBiblePovertyNow.com whose efforts intend to give some format of digital oral Bibles or partial Bibles along with the Jesus Film), the Alpha Course, and some form of correspondence courses to connect with even the nomadic indigenous young people who have cell phones which they use on some occasions. Notice that Campus Crusade (Cru) for Christ International is working with this End Bible Poverty project. Cru also launched a new program to try to get Bible education back in secular universities and high schools of America – the very same type of project that the send wants to do by having young people text “college” or “school” to get them into these initiatives. The Send did get over 4,200 to text to those initiatives to consider joining. In fact, CRU launched their prayer effort for reaching universities and high schools on Monday the same day that The Send started their 100 hours of prayer for the event on Saturday. So you can clearly see that they are working together hand-in-hand on this project. By the way, notice the word Crusade, because it is a Vatican term used for conquering those who refuse to be subservient to the Roman Catholic powers worldwide.

So he explains that this will allow him to disciple people of all nations. And he says he wants to do this because all awakenings from the Reformation onward started with Bibles going out first. He then tries to suggest that all of the leaders of various knowledge advances were from God – in technological advances (like printing Bibles and books), science fields (he named a couple of “Christian” science philosophers), and education, and even the industrial revolution (which Cunningham says that it wasn’t perfect, but it was from God). In reality most of the leaders of these fields stole the ideas from people who were obstinately refusing to be oppressed by their governments from doing what was right – and they are the real innovators. Most of the visible names we know as famous founders of this or that are actually just thieves who co-opted these sciences to do evil while also doing some great new “good” such as printing Bibles or helping small farmers or allowing more knowledge to get to peasants. These “awakenings” or “enlightenments” were actually almost entirely directed by Jesuits and Masons in order to keep control of the people – both secular and spiritual – by “giving” or allowing progress so as to pretend to make peace with those who refused to be subservient to the Roman Catholic powers. And Loren knows quite well also that the industrial revolution was only to overthrow the United States Constitution and give the power to the corporations and central banking as well as to increase the pressure to produce for the “good” of all, which really just leads toward one world government oppression when it is done in that manner. And that is exactly what Loren is leading toward (one world government) as a Jesuit agent, so he definitely wants to boast about being part of that.

Loren met with Dr. Ben Carson (who we believe is skull-and-bones member because he is a fellow at Johns Hopkins at Yale) who said that he wants Bibles in the hands of every university student across America. The other part of that End Bible Poverty initiative that Loren explained is to get audio digital format of at least some part of the Bible into every known language of every people group around the world. So then they will be able to erase the word “unreached” from the missions discussions. And here is where the real agenda lies. These Vatican agents who only love power, money, immorality, lies, and even murder are always set on trying to misinterpret the Scriptures for their own agendas. In this case, the verse being distorted is Jesus’ words in Matthew 24:14, where Jesus says “And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.” The very next statement, Jesus goes on to explain the next part of the abomination of desolation being set up in a Temple that isn’t even built right now. So you know these liars are trying to pretend we are near the end and that they can rush the conclusion and pretend to play God’s hand in bringing judgment (with high tech military weaponry that causes natural disasters for example) sort of as a God-makes-preemptive-strike type of accusation.

The problem comes in the fact that these Jesuits and Masons literally are playing both sides and are split in too many directions to keep the hoax going. They don’t want to allow the building of the Temple because that really would start a major move of God among the Jewish people and Christians who love our Jewish friends. But they want to pretend that we are in Tribulation times in order to threaten Christians to shut up while they finish building their one world government (as a pretend Kingdom of God). But their early and mostly American-localized Tribulation is failing to keep Christians silenced because it’s clear that we are not in Tribulation based on the actual prophecies themselves – for example the presence of a Temple in Jerusalem. So they are getting caught in their own lies and traps they set for other people to fall into. When God does finally judge the devil and his followers after such great patience with all of this, it will be for very serious evils and world-wide murder projects and the highest level of tyrannical absolutism one world government possible while also adding that the devil will try to claim to be God in the temple. All of that will be clear enough to bring final judgment. But until then, God is allowing the devil to flounder around in his lies and get caught by those who are willing to receive the truth with meekness and fear and will repent of these sins and false gospels.

Loren also expressed that he wants to send these young people to the countries of the world to be part of this “awakening”. And he explains that there are about (I think he said) 241 sovereign nations in the world. And he also boasts that he could get any of his followers into any one of them and that he has been to every one of them, but he just can’t promise that he can get you back out of some of those countries. Loren admits to being connected to the highest levels of power structures in the world. He continues this boasting (as the Jesuits are known for) by saying that “they” control all of the missions efforts and intend to coordinate them toward a deadline of Christmas next year 2020. He says that the young people can literally join any missions program they choose, and that they will all be working together toward this same goal. This complete control of international missions by Roman Vatican powers happened with the Lausanne Council (1966) in partnership with the Vatican II council (late 1965), which boasted that it had control of missions worldwide around 1975 and afterward. As if to clarify how much power Loren Cunningham has as a high level Jesuit agent, he added that he met with the Coptic Orthodox Pope Tawadros II, Patriarch of Alexandria, Egypt and got his blessing for the project. And he added that Pope Francis – who is also a Jesuit – not only gave his blessing but was more bold, saying that he wanted all of his cardinals to help in the effort. Now you understand that they both serve the devil who is their father and they are doing the deeds of he who is the father of lies and a murderer from the beginning.

If you aren’t clear that Cunningham is a satanist and Jesuit by his partnership with Pope Francis, then consider this next expression. Loren Cunningham was invited by Daniel Kolenda to come back on stage to pray for the congregation. And Loren prayed to God that (loosely quoting) “we need the virus of the Holy Spirit that can come and consume all of the other viruses and become the one great virus.” He literally is calling to the brain-virus accusations of top atheists like Richard Dawkins. “It is fashionable to wax apocalyptic about the threat to humanity posed by the AIDS virus, “mad cow” disease, and many others, but I think a case can be made that faith is one of the world’s great evils, comparable to the smallpox virus but harder to eradicate. (From the opening line from a speech Richard Dawkins gave in 1996 to the American Humanist Association whilst accepting their “Humanist of the Year” award for 1996). > https://www.age-of-the-sage.org/quotations/quotes/richard_dawkins_god.html

Basically, what Loren is saying is that the elite rulers of the Vatican need to eliminate some of the corruptive addictions they have been tolerating in society but which would cause the disintegration of their new world order if they allow them to continue. And they want to blame God and Christians for the genocide, torture, detention, racism, classism, oppression, slavery, international thievery, anti-gay hatred, euthanasia and eugenics, abuse and forced integration of aborigine peoples and all peoples around the world. This is also why they have used America to lead the bullying military and ideological games to force all governments under one world government and international monetary fund. If they don’t have Christianity (what Loren calls the great virus) conquer all of the other “undesirables” (lesser viruses), then their Roman Vatican powers would be clearly caught as being the real system of lies, murder, and immorality while following Christ would be known as being the truth, love, and honorable morality, which it is. And then there would be no doubt that Christians and God especially are not guilty of all of the world’s problems. Then the discussion will have to shift worldwide to correcting all of the accusations against the Jewish people as being the cause of all of the world’s problems. If you are unfamiliar with the depths of anti-Semitism, it would perhaps surprise you that they literally have a way of blaming literally any and all of the world’s problems on the Jewish people.

The theme of The Send is to Declare War on Inaction as seen in this promo.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TaxO7YF7QoA>

They ended the night with “THE WAR ON INACTION HAS BEGUN”, then the screen would glitch with lots of small sparks all over the screen saying in small writing “a new era”, then it said “GO” and would immediately switch back to the original phrase. This repeated several dozen times during the last few songs etc.

Heidi Baker only spoke briefly but poignantly saying that the young people should cry “yes” to God to pour lots of oil all over them, so that when he sets fire to them, they will not just burn for 1 or 2 or 5 or 10 years but forever. And we are wondering how people do not realize that these people hate and mock their own followers as following them into burning forever in hell.

Jesus Fast is Lent March 1 – April 9 <https://www.lentreflections.com/> Lent is March 6 – April 18

<https://www.exploreGod.com/what-is-lent> The Chicago Explore God (XG) network is also encouraging Lent – this group is promoted by Billy Graham Center, Moody Church, Lausanne Mission America Coalition, Navigators, Pioneers, Luis Palau, Alpha (who is also working with The Send and End Bible Poverty projects), Awana, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Outreach Magazine, and Chicagoland United in Prayer.

There is more, but this is just the short notes. We wanted to get a report out so that people can know and pray against this new Jesuit movement.

Thanks for watching and praying, The FEDBP ministry team
